THE Protectors

Carers Income Benefit

Caring for you whilst you care for the ones you love.
Short term financial care long term help.

Our Proposition

- Carers Income benefit
- Short term (Max 12 month) Income protection allowing individuals to have financially supported unpaid leave to care for a family member or partner.
- Practical support and guidance, signposting to relevant partners and agencies.
- Why?
  - Prospective UK legislation
  - Increase in aging population
  - Cuts in govt. funding for social care
  - Need for elderly care

Our Product

Policy Conditions and details

- 12 month pay maximum
- Can only claim once and then policy cancels
- 60% of income covered.
- Maximum sum assured: £24,000
- Dependant can be biological or step parents & children, spouse or financially dependant partner
- One year moratorium on product
- One year continuous employment
- If policy not used after certain amount of time can rebate percentage of premium.
- Level premium
- Terminates at state pension age
- Support and signposting to counselling and medical guidance such as RedArc or Greymatters

Distribution and Marketing

- Target audience is ‘Sandwich generation’ 40– 50 year olds who maybe caring for elderly parents, partners and children.
- Direct Marketing – Aimed at time poor people, quick application online, collaboration with age charities, advertised through employers.
- IFA marketing – Offered in conjunction with other products
- Marketing specific locations carers may attend in everyday life e.g.: GP surgery
- Conventional marketing avenues; TV and social media etc..

Underwriting

- Light touch completed digitally by client or IFA
  - Income
  - More than 30 days off in last two years due to sickness.
  - Must be employed
  - Number of parents and age

  - Decline insured more than 30 days sickness in two years, unable to complete all of ADL's
  - Loading according to parents age.

Pricing

- Premiums will be set depending on:
  - age of parent(s),
  - current age,
  - retirement age and
  - benefit level.
- Premiums paid monthly in advance.
- The premiums will be set to cover average child cost, expenses and small profit margin.

Claims Assessment – Financial

Proof of earnings

- Employed– P60
- Self employed: 3 years self assessment tax returns

Proof of non work, letter from employer or bank statements proving income not coming in.

Claims Assessment – Medical

- AMRA signed by third party
- Letter from Medical expert GP, Occupational therapist etc .. Confirming cannot complete three of ADL’s

ADL

- preparing or eating food
- washing, bathing and using the toilet
- dressing and undressing
- reading and communicating
- managing your medicines or treatments
- making decisions about money
- engaging with other people

PIP boundaries so customer already familiar if claiming

Legal Challenges

- Obtaining third party consent for data
- Conflict of interest with insured potentially having guardianship or power of attorney for dependant.
- Risk currently covered by child CI

Compassionate

Caring

Short term financial

A new approach to insurance

Any questions