

LIFE, ACCIDENT AND HEALTH LEGAL ADVICE SERVICES

Drawing from decades of experience and engagement with industry groups our service is tailored to your needs, whether this is supporting your own internal legal resource or your senior management team and case handlers in a practical and flexible way.

Our “cradle to grave” service to the life, protection and A&H market is further enhanced by CPB’s breadth of expertise in the full range of commercial advisory services to insurers, reinsurers, Lloyd’s Syndicates, Friendly Societies, brokers and service providers.

Our familiarity with the full range of life, protection, contingency, personal accident and travel products means that we provide “added value” when advising on insurance product, contractual, trusts, regulatory, compliance, data protection, Ombudsman referrals, fraud, sports and career ending injury and illness, employment, corporate transactional matters, dispute resolution and litigation/arbitration matters.

With Ombudsman referrals, we can recommend how to approach the referral in hand and either communicate directly with the Financial Ombudsman Service or draft final decision letters on your behalf. We can also advise on Judicial Review.

Recent trends include an increase in suicide and attempted suicide cases in connection with life and personal accident policies. There has also been a prevalence of issues arising from Functional Neurological Disorder following apparently minor head injuries.

INTRODUCTION TO CPB

Carter Perry Bailey LLP specialises in insurance, reinsurance, regulatory and commercial advice, product development, dispute resolution, litigation and arbitration.

Our lawyers deliver an expert personal service. They work closely with clients in order to understand your insurance products, business goals and the range of issues that you face day to day.

Based in the City, but with global reach, our international capability is enhanced by being the exclusive UK member of Insuralex, the leading international grouping of independent law firms specialist in insurance and reinsurance law. We have the flexibility to involve an Insuralex member or another firm, depending upon who is best suited to the task at hand.

Our size, experience, specialisation and flexibility means that we act swiftly, proactively and efficiently to achieve our client's objectives.

CPB's philosophy is simple: to work as part of your team to achieve your commercial aims speedily and cost-effectively.

"Deep understanding of the insurance market practices. Fantastic ability to navigate through complex issues and come up with a solution... 'always available'... 'unparalleled advice on any matter, large or small'." Legal 500 2019

"... 'Dedication to clients and an ability to manage complex situations'... 'service is always good and of a personal nature and the firm has great communication at all stages of work'..." Legal 500 2018

"Adept in handling a wide range of insurance and reinsurance work, for both domestic and international clients." Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession 2014
