

“Obesity and Smoking”

Dr. Albert Ferrante, MB BS MRCS FRCP (UK), Senior Partner
C.M.O. Munich Re

Obesity

“...the abnormal or excessive fat accumulation that may impair health”

Body Mass Index

25 +

Overweight

30 +

Obese

World Health Organization

Obesity

1.5bn adults obese (2008)

Leading cause of mortality

2.8 million deaths each year

44% diabetes, 23% heart disease

Obesity is totally preventable

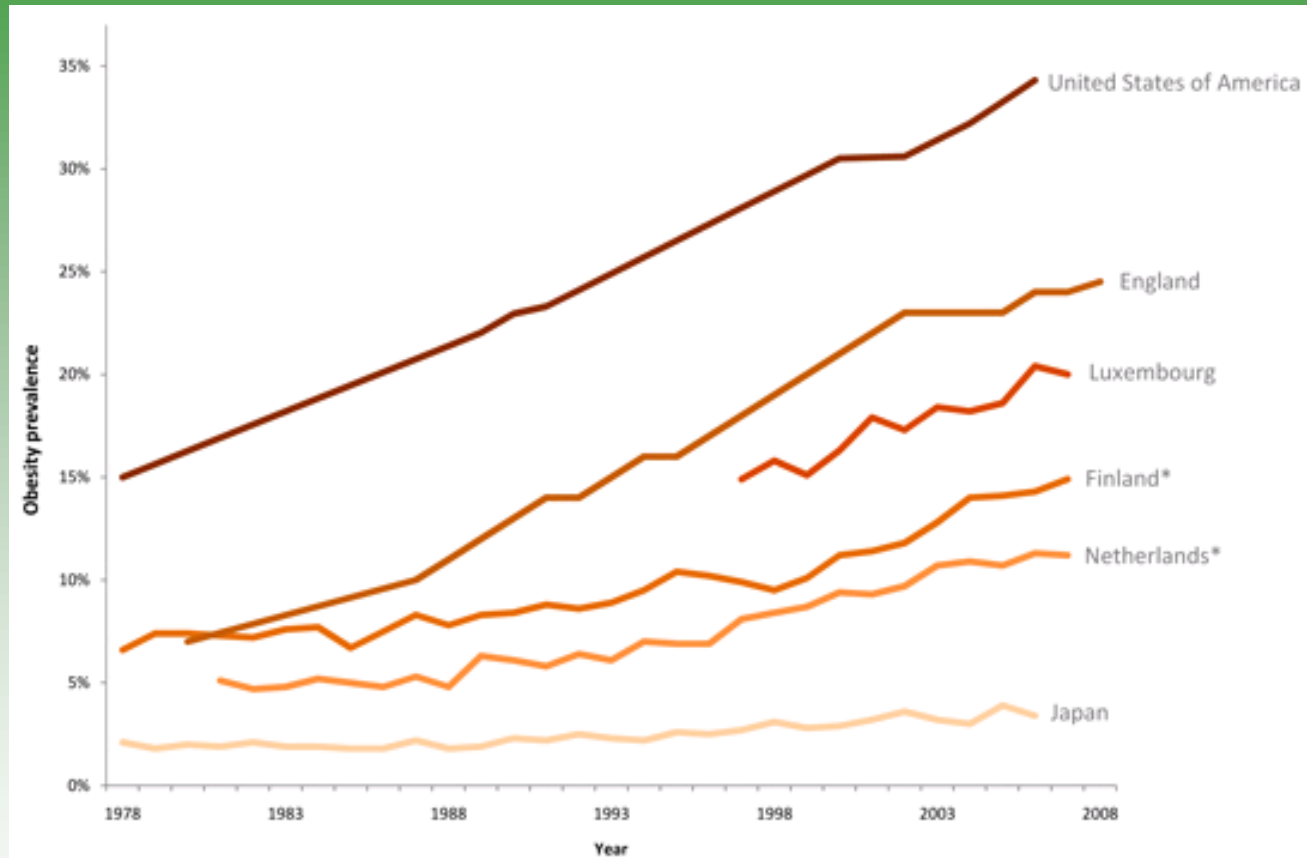

World Health Organization

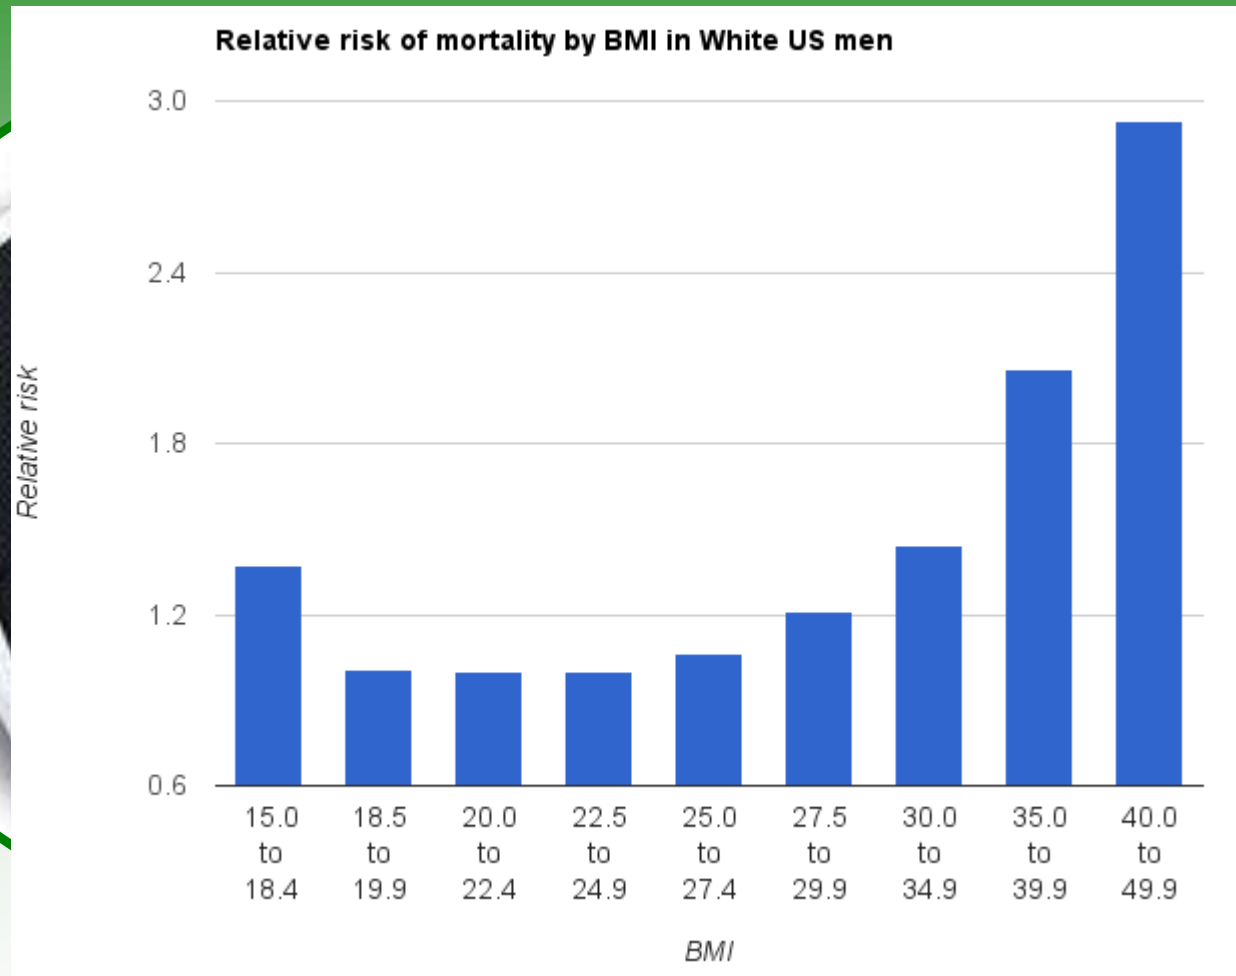

Causes of obesity

Obesity trends

Obesity harms

by

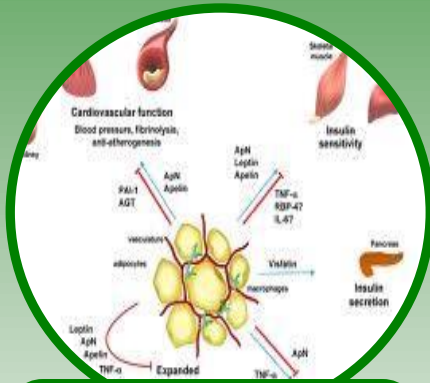

by

by

by

al

Why is obesity dangerous?

Adipokines

Insulin

Hormones

Treatment

Diet

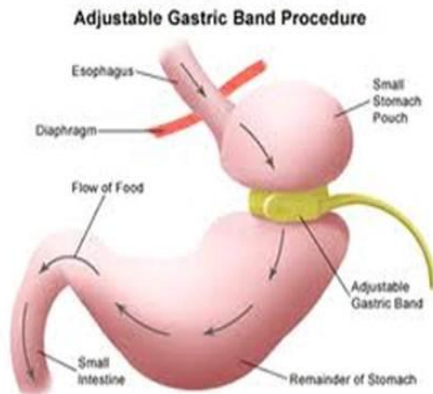

Activity

Food manufacture

Obesity & bariatric surgery

Surgery c. £6/9,000.00

Only follows failure of diet etc

Infection, injury, band moves

Malabsorptive or restrictive

BMI 40+, or 35 + other problem

Smoking: History

First recorded 5,000 BC

American Indians

10th Century cultivation

1920's link to Cancer

1950/54 Doll & Petoe studies

Smoking: Today

1bn smokers worldwide

80,000 UK jobs related

5.4m deaths every year

21 pc of UK population smoke

Socio-economic prevalence

Any hope for the smoker?

Multiple harms

Smoking cessation

Don't start