

PACIFIC LIFE RE

JUNIOR LIFE AND DISABILITY CLAIMS ASSESSOR

LONDON

COMPETITIVE SALARY + BENEFITS PACKAGE

Pacific Life Re offers a comprehensive range of wholesale life risk management products and services in the UK, Ireland, Asia and North America. At Pacific Life Re, you will find an established team of experts providing innovative reinsurance solutions backed by the strength of the Pacific Life group. In the UK and Ireland we focus on individual life, critical illness and income protection business and provide a full range of reinsurance solutions relating to annuity and longevity risk. Our Singapore and Tokyo operations offer life reinsurance services to clients across a range of markets in Asia. Pacific Life has a distinguished history and a reputation for corporate and financial strength, high ethical standards and a strong focus on customers.

We are looking for a claims assessor with a strong working knowledge of life and disability claims practices and a minimum of 1-2 years experience working in a life and disability claims department in a life insurance or reinsurance company environment.

Candidates will be educated to at least "A" level standard and ideally progression towards the Claims Diploma.

Job responsibilities include:

- Responsibility for contributing to all aspects of claims assessment for life, critical illness and disability benefits and supporting the provision of a top-class case support service for our clients.
- Participating in client audits and visits including preparation, execution and reporting
- Helping manage client relationships and developing Pacific Life Re's profile through exceptional customer service.

The Individual

The successful candidate will demonstrate excellent technical and interpersonal skills with a flexible, open-minded approach towards taking on new challenges. The ability to work both independently and within teams will also be extremely important as will an eye for detail. In addition strong communication skills and a desire to deliver exceptional levels of client service in a vibrant and fast-paced working environment is key.

We offer substantial opportunities to develop existing skills and learn new ones within a corporate culture which encourages cross-disciplinary working and personal autonomy.

Taylor James are representing Pacific Life Re for this vacancy. If you are interested to apply or for an informal conversation about the role, then please contact Jeff Carr on 0207 648 2210 or email Jeff@taylorjamesresourcing.com