

Claims Manager

Vacancy

August 2023

We're looking for an experienced Income Protection Claims Manager to join our growing claims team at British Friendly. We are based in Bedford and we're happy to consider home working if you're not from the area.

You'll be dealing with new claim notifications, reviews of claims in payment, offering support to our members via our rehabilitation providers or our discretionary benefit offering, managing appeals and complaints.

You will share our passion for supporting our members at the time they need us the most, gathering the essential information needed to make prompt decisions using your excellent judgement and decision-making skills. You will be dealing with vulnerable members so the ability to establish effective relationships and communicate both over the telephone and in writing is essential.

We're a busy team so you will need to have the ability to cope with varying workloads and priorities. You will need to have excellent attention to detail and a drive to deliver the highest quality of service whilst building strong working relationships with your colleagues.
