

Capita Life, Pensions and Specialist Services

Medical Underwriter

Competitive salary plus benefits

Permanent, full-time

Swindon (will consider home workers too)

At Capita Life, Pensions & Specialist, we work in partnership with over 20 well known UK and international financial services providers to administer life, savings and pensions policies on their behalf. We're able to deliver complex processing while maintaining quality, and provide a wide range of services including underwriting, back office administration, claims management and technical support. We work with a number of notable clients such as Sun Life, Abbeylife and Royal London. You could too, if you join our talented financial services team here as a Medical Underwriter.

About the role:

Capita provide Underwriting Services for many insurers within the Industry and for this role we are looking for candidates with previous experience of medical underwriting on a protection book. As an Underwriter you will ensure robust and accurate decisions are made within your authority limits and agreed service standards. You will have an excellent customer service ethos and will be part of a team that is innovative and passionate about what we do. There's room to grow in this exciting role and we'll give you everything you need to develop your career.

You'll need:

You'll have experience of the protection market and able to communicate by phone and in writing. You will have previous autonomy in this field and will be used to interpreting Underwriting Philosophies, non standard medical conditions and have a good understanding of commercial risk in an Underwriting context.

Working at Capita:

At Capita, we believe an open, transparent working environment that encourages ingenuity and collaboration – with colleagues, customers and clients – is what makes us so effective at what we do. As well as a generous basic salary, we also give you 23 day's holiday (rising to 27), company matched pension scheme and access to a variety of voluntary benefit options. These include a share save scheme, life assurance, holiday buy and many more designed to suit your own personal lifestyle, such as retail, leisure, health and wellbeing discounts.
