

Claims Specialist

Guardian was “re-born” with a simple objective....to make life better. It’s at the core of everything we do and we’ve worked hard to turn an idea into an exciting business proposition. We’ve brought together the best capability, technology and people to create a business that challenges conventional thinking, and approaches things differently.

We believe that by being trusting we will be trusted in return. For our business that means providing Financial Advisers and their clients with products and services that they can be certain of. For you that means being part of a team where you can really make a difference, and part of a culture that is driven to make life better. You’ll be in an environment that you can trust to do everything it can to help you grow and succeed.

What you’ll be doing

The Claims Specialist role reports to the Head of Claims and is responsible for managing Life, Critical Illness and Disability claims including the technical decision making. The Claims Specialist will also work closely with the Head of Claims to support the development and delivery of the claims proposition to help achieve the target business outcomes.

The key responsibilities of the role are:

- Managing all aspects of Life, Critical Illness and Disability claims including technical decision making in accordance with Guardian’s operating processes and agreed claims philosophy
- Communicating with clients and advisers by email and telephone as and when required
- Building strong relationships with service providers, reinsurers and other internal and external stakeholders
- Adhering to current financial, FOS, regulatory, legal and industry guidelines in processing and managing claims, including DPA
- Developing, reviewing and updating claims letters and forms, operating processes and procedures, and other promotional literature
- Inputting and maintaining claims data and reporting MI to business requirements
- Leading discussions on complex or unusual claims and inputting into and reviewing the agreed claims philosophy as appropriate
- Delivering training and promoting claims across the business

Who we need?

Ideally you will have the following expertise:

- A minimum of 5 years’ experience in managing a portfolio of Life, Critical Illness and Disability claims is preferable, working within an agreed claims admittance authority
- Great customer service skills with a passion and desire to achieve the best outcome for the customer
- A proactive and collaborative nature, with the ability to navigate ambiguity and work with colleagues across the business to drive improvements in the claims proposition
- Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written
- Strong planning and organisational skills

Objectives

- Meeting agreed Service Levels for claims
- Meeting agreed quality standards, including: QA, complaints and breaches.

Compliance

- Incorporating and ensuring adherence to the FCA's "Treating Customers Fairly" consumer and conduct risk requirements
- Completion of all mandatory compliance training
