

Are you the best? We are!

Exeter Family Friendly is a mutual friendly society which is here to minimise the cost and impact of ill health for our members and their families. We offer Income Protection and Private Medical Insurance policies.

Which?* Voted 'Exeter Family Friendly' as number one for customer satisfaction in 2011 and we are currently looking for a highly experienced, Senior Individual Income Protection Claims Assessor to join our award winning team.

The role of Senior Individual Income Protection Claims Assessor requires a technical expert, confident in claims methodology, able to manage claims from initial notification through to final settlement. Income protection knowledge, a sound understanding of the IFA market and working under the FSA regulations are essential to this role.

The successful candidate will demonstrate outstanding technical knowledge and expertise with the ability to handle complex case work confidently. The candidate will have previously held a position with a high level of agreed authority limits, have the confidence to coach and share their knowledge of best practice to others within their team as well as to colleagues across other areas of the business. In addition, the successful candidate will hold, or be willing to study towards the CII CF1 examination.

If you possess excellent communication skills, have a passion for delivering customer service and enjoy sharing your technical knowledge to help others learn, then this role is definitely for you.

Our benefits include a competitive salary plus company annual bonus scheme, 24 days holiday plus bank holidays, 35 hour working week, contributory pension, private medical insurance, childcare vouchers, income protection and death in service benefits after qualifying period, an on-site gym and free car-parking.

Please note the successful candidate will need to pass a satisfactory background check including an adverse financial check (CCJs).

To apply please submit your CV and a covering letter via email to recruitment@exeterfamily.co.uk. If you do not hear from us within 3 weeks of submitting your application, please assume you have been unsuccessful on this occasion.

For more information about us check out our website at www.exeterfamily.co.uk

Overall Winner of the Private Medical Insurance Customer Satisfaction Survey 2011