Your Claims, Our Resources

Claims handling is technical, expensive and operates within industry standards and regulations which require defined and efficient processes. Medicals Direct manages all aspects of the claims process, allowing you to enhance the claimant experience and dramatically improve the claims timeline whilst reducing your administrative costs.

Why Medicals Direct?

Operating in the insurance sector since 1994 and counting virtually every major UK insurer as a client, Medicals Direct Group is at the heart of the industry. We are no ordinary outsourcing provider: our unparalleled technical knowledge and experience of medical evidence gathering, medical interventions and business process outsourcing, along with cutting-edge claims management software, enable us to radically improve the claims process for our clients.

Market-Leading Technology

Our highly sophisticated and user-friendly web-based claims management platform offers different levels of user access and automated email alerts; meaning instant, real-time updates for stakeholders including insurers, brokers, employers and even claimants. The platform can easily be integrated with your internal systems via a secure online connection.

Streamline Processes, Cut Costs

Whether you'd like to outsource your entire claims portfolio; to manage peaks in your business; or to outsource one or two aspects of the claims process, we can help.

Benefits include:

- 30% faster timeline for medical evidence gathering than industry averages
- 30% reduction in average medical evidence gathering costs
- Flexible letter production and fast fulfilment with our streamlined technical letters functionality
- Ability to allow reinsurers to audit your claims portfolio online
