With 35 years' experience, Clarity Surveillance is your invisible asset for investigating fraud. We provide an end-to-end
surveillance solution tailored around your requirements with a personal approach.

SURVEILLANCE IS IN OUR DNA

Investigations are conducted by experienced operatives, who understand the complexities of uncovering factual evidence to enable you to make informed decisions.

We operate teams nationwide as well as overseas to give you a true, actionable picture of a claimant's activities. We are a trusted choice for Insurers, Solicitors, Corporations and Local Authorities. We have appeared on the BBC's Claimed and Shamed numerous times.

When instructing surveillance, you have the comfort that you are working with the right partner. We uphold your reputation in all our work.

YOUR JOURNEY

“£26k spent over one month! Over nine instructions. We saved the business £3,000,000 in claims.”

Leading UK
Insurance Co.

From the moment we receive your instruction, you will be confident that you are in safe hands. We start by assessing your requirements and allocate a case manager.

This is just the start of our long-established process, that we know will deliver the best results possible for you.

We communicate updates to help you make informed decisions about the direction of the instruction.

Reports and footage are uploaded onto our secure portal for you to view or download.

Our aim is to deliver, detailed, reliable, ethically gathered reports and high-quality footage, on time, every time.
