

Becoming a Claims Assessor with Capita Specialist Services

We are growing and we therefore have a number of excellent opportunities for experienced Claims Assessors in our Cheltenham office.

Here at Capita we look after a number of different insurers who we deliver Claim Assessment Services for. Quite simply we love what we do and if you have a passion for pro-active claim management, innovative thinking and a real desire to support vulnerable customers and make a difference when they need it most we would love to hear from you.

What you will do:

- Pro-actively assess and manage claims that may include Waiver of Premium, Income Protection and Terminal/Critical Illness (and other product benefits that are specific to a client account)
- Deliver an accurate, efficient and quality service in line with the Capita Life and Pensions service level agreements and receive good feedback following internal and external claim audits
- Interpret policy terms and conditions, medical evidence and financial accounts to reach a decision on the validity of a claim
- Provide thorough and robust justifications of decisions and refer cases to third parties including, Chief Medical Officers reassures and client company contacts in an accurate and clear manner
- Communicate well both verbally and in writing to give clear instruction, adhere to Treating Customers Fairly, manage the claimant's expectations and portray Capita's high standards of claim assessment.
- To support our pro-active approach to claim management by use of the telephone wherever appropriate to establish the circumstances of a claim, clarify information, triage and manage the expectations of the claimant
- Provide support for less experienced members of the team by sharing experiences, knowledge and ideas

What we're looking for:

- Previous Claims Assessment or Underwriting Experience
- Current knowledge of the protection market
- Experience in Long Term Care would be an advantage
- A passion for delivering excellent customer service
- Manage your portfolio of Claims from notification through to settlement
- Great letter writing and phone skills
- Experience in dealing with Claim or Underwriting Philosophies
