

Claims Assessor (maternity cover)

Established in 1966, Hannover Re is today one of the largest reinsurance groups in the world, with over 100 subsidiaries, branches and representative offices worldwide, participating in all lines of property, casualty, life and health insurance.

Our UK Life Branch is currently looking for an experienced Claims Assessor to cover for one of our team who will shortly be taking maternity leave. The role is predominantly home based but attendance at our London office will occasionally be required, as will travel to our clients' offices

Main Duties

- Providing claims services to clients, ensuring that service standards are maintained and that decisions are made according to agreed Company policies, philosophies and procedures
- Deal with day to day internal and external client enquiries
- Provide internal and external training to clients and colleagues
- Provide input to the tender process as required
- Undertake audits of client companies, discuss findings and make recommendations to line manager and produce a report within the agreed service level agreement for final sign off by Claims Manager
- Organise, attend and document operational review meetings in line with the agreed visit programme
- Participate in the external visibility programme, to develop and maintain contacts in the market place this includes client events, seminars, industry dinners, industry groups, editorial production and speaking opportunities and report on these as appropriate
- Ensure that internal Claims systems continue to meet business needs
- Provide MI as appropriate to all internal and external stake holders as requested
- Maintain a high level of knowledge of the industry, to include products and distribution
- Maintain good relations with colleagues in the Hannover Re Group and liaise with them as necessary on claims issues

Skills and Experience

- Experience of working in a life/disability claims team at a reinsurer or UK insurer
- Knowledge of the UK protection market, products, claims practices and relevant codes of practice and legislation
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Strong interpersonal skills and a collaborative team player

- Sound IT knowledge and skills
- Self-motivation and strong organisational capabilities

What's on offer

- Fixed term contract for 12 months
- Competitive salary and benefits
- Homeworking

If you'd like to apply, or need any further information please contact:
UK_Recruitment@hannover-re.com