Position: Income Protection (IP) Claims Assessor

Location: Office/hybrid or Homeworking contract

Hours: Full-time, 35 hours per week, Monday to Friday, we are open to discuss other flexible working options, for example part-time and condensed hours.

Salary: Dependent on skill and knowledge.

You Matter More. We simply couldn't say that if we weren't a modern mutual, and because we don't have shareholders demanding dividends, we are free to re-invest all our profits back into the important things:

- People before profit: We prioritise our members' needs, reinvesting profits to improve our services and keep premiums affordable.
- Inclusivity: We consider every application on its merits, often saying yes when others might say no.
- Excellence: We strive to provide quality cover at a fair price, regularly benchmarking our products against the market.
- Integrity: We are committed to paying claims quickly and fairly, ensuring our reputation for reliability and trustworthiness.
- Employees: We believe in empowering our employees to achieve their best while making a real difference in people's lives.

Join our team and become part of a supportive, innovative, and inclusive workplace where your skills and ambitions are valued.

Key responsibilities of an IP Claims Assessor:

- Swiftly and accurately assess and authorise IP claims in line with policy terms, procedures, and philosophy.
- Develop core capabilities to assess, approve, and process claims efficiently.
- Review ongoing claims, make appropriate referrals, and recommend management plans.
- Liaise effectively with medical professionals, intermediaries, and both internal and external customers.
- Provide support and guidance to customers regarding claims, ensuring a positive experience for successful claims and clear communication for declined claims.
- Arrange independent assessments, treatments, home visits, and private investigations as per current claims management policy.
- Maintain regular contact with policyholders through the Health Claims Advisory Service to build relationships and facilitate a smooth return to work.
- Write confidential correspondence to medical professionals, financial advisors, policyholders, reinsurers, employers, and suppliers.
- Stay updated with industry developments and claims management initiatives.
- Contribute to the development of claims philosophy, services, systems, and procedures.
- Understand and adhere to relevant financial regulations.

What we're looking for in you:

- Skilled within the claim business processes including policy cover, financial/medical underwriting criteria and conflict handling
- Insurance industry knowledge

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Highly organised, proactive, and capable of managing a varied workload.
- Strong attention to detail, with the ability to follow established processes and procedures accurately.
- Experience in handling difficult customers and effortlessly building rapport.
- A solutions-oriented mindset with strong decision-making abilities.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office software.
- The Right to Work in the UK

Benefits:

As an employee, you'll enjoy a range of benefits, including flexible working options, comprehensive health and wellness programs, and opportunities for professional growth. We're committed to fostering a positive work environment that encourages collaboration, creativity, and continuous learning.

- Competitive salary
- Flexible working options
- Comprehensive Health Cover
- Income Protection Cover
- Generous Pension scheme
- 27 days holiday allowance
- Holiday trading
- Your Birthday Day off
- 2 paid volunteering days per annum
- Life Assurance four times salary
- Professional development opportunities
- Employee assistance program
- Supportive and inclusive work environment

If you're passionate about what you do and eager to contribute to a modern mutual that prioritises its employees, members, and customers, we want to hear from you.
