

Role: Experienced Claims Assessor/Senior Assessor

Location: Edinburgh/Home Working

Salary: Competitive salary based on experience (between £41,292 - £61,938)

Job Details

At Scottish Widows we've been paying out claims for over 200 years, so customers can depend on us to be there when they need us most. Our dedicated Claims Team is one of the largest in the industry and has expertise and specialist knowledge in all types of protection claims.

We are currently looking to recruit experienced Claims Assessors for our Claims Team which forms part of the Lloyds Banking Group Insurance, Pension and Investment Chief Operating Office. We play a vital role in supporting delivery of the group purpose of Helping Britain Prosper by efficiently and effectively supporting customers through the claims process which is a key moment of truth in their lives.

A culture of trusting our colleagues to do the right thing and driving continuous improvement encourages our colleagues to bring their best self to work each day. Interactions with our customers must be of the highest quality ensuring clarity of information, empathy and compassion throughout the claim journey.

Any successful candidate must be passionate about putting people first so that we listen and care for people as individuals. You will have a keen eye for detail and be able to competently assess critical information to arrive at the right outcome. You will be responsible for operating within clearly defined quality measures and personal authority limits. This role includes telephony based customer contact and requires candidates who are proactive, can work to tight deadlines and possess excellent decision making skills.

You should have a passion for driving your career growth and commitment to working towards the expected standard, this means proactively seeking learning opportunities from our technical team and Senior Assessors.

The role is hybrid based within our Port Hamilton office in Edinburgh with an expectation for 40% of the working week based in the office with colleagues, however we can consider full time home working for remote candidates who are not based locally. Our department is open Monday to Friday 9 to 5 and you will be expected to be flexible within these times to a total of 35hrs a week.

Skills/Key Accountabilities

- Versatile and competent on a mixture of claim types (including critical illness, terminal illness and preferably income protection benefit) with full sign off or driven to work towards these at pace.
- Ability to manage own case portfolio and adherence to personal Claims Authority Limits whilst adhering to business timescales and needs.
- Be responsible for mentoring less senior colleagues and leading their development and training.
- Responsible for completion and associated follow up work and feedback for overall quality checking, including call monitoring and scoring
- Ability to present and tailor messages to differing audiences
- Expected to be available to attend and represent Scottish Widows at relevant external Claims Industry events.
- A minimum of 3 years experience within a Health Claims environment covering a range of products
- Excellent communication skills are essential along with the ability to manage the customer's expectations throughout the claims process.
- Meeting targets including accuracy, quality and volume to an agreed service level.
- Telephony experience essential.
